Frequently Asked Questions

Volunteer Lawyer Evaluator

What is an Evaluator?

Evaluators assist the judges in scoring the CCLRE Mock Trials at the Richard J. Daley Center.

What are the responsibilities of the Evaluator?

The timings of opening statements and closing arguments, penalty points in conjunction with the Mock Trial Rules, and overall scoring.

How much time is involved?

Mock Trials are held evenings in courtrooms at the Daley Center. Evaluators should arrive by 5:15 p.m., trials begin at 5:30 p.m. and end around 8:00 p.m., in March.

What kind of preparation is involved?

Once you have committed to volunteer as an evaluator, the Chicago Coalition for Law-Related Education will send you the case problem to review, along with a Bench Brief, Mock trial rules, penalty points, and a sample score sheet. The materials will prepare you to assist the judge in scoring the teams.

Can I volunteer for more than one night?

Yes.
