General Administrative Orders 2015-02, 2016-02, and 2016-04 established a new procedure and guidelines for special representatives in mortgage foreclosure cases. Until the court-approved list is established by the Special Representative Committee, this general administrative order will govern appearance fees for appointed special representatives.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- (b) A copy of this general administrative order.

2. This general administrative order and the waiver of appearance fees shall remain in effect until the Special Representative Committee finalizes the court-approved list pursuant to General Administrative Orders 2015-02, 2016-02, and 2016-04. When the initial list is finalized and published, the Office of the Presiding Judge will send a notice to the court-approved special representatives, judges, and the Clerk of the Circuit Court that the special representatives should begin paying the appearance fees.
