(insert all persons, attorneys and others present)

and ____________________________________, mediator, that all mediation communications shall be confidential and privileged, not subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any proceeding to the extent provided by the Uniform Mediation Act, 710 ILCS 35/1, et. seq. Evidence or information that is otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely by reason of its disclosure or use in mediation.

It is further agreed that the mediator shall not be called as a witness in any proceeding related to the substance of the mediation, except as to matters that involve a mediation communication that is not privileged under the Uniform Mediation Act, 710 ILCS 35/1, et. seq.

It is further acknowledged by the parties that the mediator, ____________________________________, and the mediator’s firm or organization, ____________________________________, are not acting as attorney to any of the parties, are not representing any of the parties, and are not providing legal advice to any of the parties.
