

NOTICE OF CREATION OF

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS STAY CALENDAR

Effective April 2, 2019, the “Criminal Proceedings Stay Calendar” will be created, and added to the Law Division Stay Calendar Inventory.

A. Guidelines:

1. Any case involving a Law Division litigant, who is a defendant in pending criminal proceedings, may be placed on the Criminal Proceedings Stay Calendar;

B. Procedure:

1. Cases may be placed on the Criminal Proceedings Stay Calendar on motion of any party, or on the court’s own motion;

2. All discovery in the Law Division case which can be conducted without affecting the criminal proceedings shall be completed prior to placement of the case on the Criminal Proceedings Stay Calendar;

3. Upon the termination of the criminal proceedings, a motion to remove the Law Division case from the Criminal Proceedings Stay Calendar shall be filed and noticed for hearing in the Law Division Assignment Room 2005;

4. Upon entry of the order of removal, the Law Division case shall be administratively renumbered and returned to its originally assigned calendar for all further proceedings.
