IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS
COUNTY DEPARTMENT - LAW DIVISION

GENERAL ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 92-2
Individual Calendar Call

Effective September 14, 1992, an Individual Calendar Call pilot program shall be instituted in the Law Division and designated cases now pending and hereafter filed therein shall be randomly assigned by electronic process to the Individual Calendars.

A. STRUCTURE.

1. The number of Individual Calendars and the judges assigned thereto shall be as the Presiding Judge of the Law Division shall from time to time designate.
2. There shall be two sections of Individual Calendars, namely: General Calendar Section and Commercial Calendar Section.
 - a) General Calendars shall have assigned to them cases of every variety pending and filed within the Law Division in numbers as shall be from time to time designated by the Presiding Judge of the Law Division.
 - b) Commercial Calendars shall have assigned to them cases, whether based upon theories of tort, contract or otherwise, that involve a commercial relationship between the parties. The number of cases assigned to each Commercial Calendar shall be as the Presiding Judge of the Law Division may from time to time designate.

B. PROCEDURE.

1. Once a case has been assigned to an Individual Calendar, all proceedings subsequently initiated and the ultimate trial of the case shall be heard by the judge presiding over the Individual Calendar to which the case has been assigned.

However, any motions which are pending on motion calendars A through E on the date that a case is assigned to an Individual Calendar shall be heard and disposed by the judge before whom the motion was pending prior to the assignment of the case to an Individual Calendar.

2. In the event of the temporary unavailability of the judge presiding over the Individual Calendar to which a case is assigned, emergency matters will be heard by the Individual Calendar judge designated as the "Emergency Judge" on the date that the matter is set for hearing.
3. Matters of scheduling and procedure not set forth in this order shall, for each Individual Calendar, be as ordered by each Individual Calendar judge. Copies of standing orders of each Individual Calendar judge shall be available upon request.
4. Change of Venue
 - a) Whenever a judge assigned to an Individual Calendar grants a change of venue or recuses himself or herself, the case shall be transferred to the Presiding Judge or Assignment Judge who shall order reassignment of the case by random electronic process to another regularly constituted Individual Calendar, if available.

The electronic data processing equipment shall automatically exclude the name of any Individual Calendar judge who has disqualified himself or herself pursuant to a motion for change of venue or recusal.

Except as set forth herein, all procedures for assignment pursuant to a change of venue shall be the same as set forth in General Administrative Order 91-4 of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Law Division.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this Order is effective September 14, 1992 and will be spread upon the records of this court.

Dated at Chicago, Illinois this 9th day of September, 1992.
