

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS
DOMESTIC RELATIONS DIVISION

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER: 2020 D 10 Amended

SUBJECT: Prove Up Guidelines

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. This order applies to and clarifies Local Rule 13.5 and 750 ILCS 5/405 during the current reduction of in person Court operations pursuant to General Administrative Order No. 2020-01 (as amended March 28, 2020), General Administrative Order 2020-02 (as amended October 17, 2020), and General Administrative Order No. 2020-07 (or such subsequent orders executed by the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County), and the authority granted to the Court under Supreme Court of Illinois M.R. 30370.
2. AGREED ORAL PROVE UPS: 750 ILCS 5/502 provides in relevant part that agreements of the parties “must be in writing, except for good cause shown with the approval of the court, before proceeding to an oral prove up.” Parties may proceed to have their uncontested final matters, commonly referred to as “prove ups” conducted remotely as follows:
 - a. Scheduling through the Clerk’s Office. For all cases on Calendars C, D, E, 11, 21, 24, 31-35, 41-45, 51-55, 61, 62, 64, 94, 98, G, W, and X/84, the parties must submit all Required Documents according to the procedure listed in this paragraph to obtain a court date for their remote-means prove up
 - i. In order to proceed with a remote-means prove up on Calendars D, E, 11, 21, 31-35, 41-45, 51-55, 61, 62, 64, 98, and X/84, starting October 1, 2020, for matters to be heard on October 19, 2020 and thereafter, the parties must schedule a date for a prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, either party must submit all documents presently required for a prove up under Local Rule 13.5¹ (hereinafter “Required Documents”) via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove up judge.²
 - ii. In order to proceed with a remote-means prove up on Calendar C, starting October 12, 2020, for matters to be heard November 1, 2020 and thereafter, the parties must schedule a date for a prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, either party must submit all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.
 - iii. In order to proceed with a remote-means prove up on Calendars G, W, and 94, starting January 4, 2021, for matters to be heard January 19, 2021 and thereafter, the parties must schedule a date for a prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, either party must submit to all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.
 - iv. In order to proceed with a remote-means prove up on Calendars 24, starting November 1, 2021, for matters to be heard November 15, 2021 and thereafter, the parties must schedule a date for a prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, either party must submit all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.

- b. Scheduling through the Court's Staff. For all cases except those assigned to the Calendars listed in Paragraph (a), the parties must submit all Required Documents according to the procedure listed in this paragraph to obtain a court date for their remote-means prove up.
 - i. All Required Documents shall be submitted via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the regularly assigned calendar judge.³
 - ii. The party submitting the Required Documents shall propose a date, time, and means (i.e. Zoom, telephonic conference call, etc.) for the remote-means prove up to occur in his or her email to the Court.
 - iii. Within 48 hours of receipt, the Court Coordinator or Division Administrator shall notify the parties and all counsel of record whether the proposed date, time, and method for the remote-means prove up have been approved by the Court or what new date, time, and method will be employed instead.
- c. All email submissions concerning Agreed Oral Prove Ups shall use the title: "Agreed Oral Prove Up", Case Number, and Agreed Oral Prove Up Date.

e.g. "Agreed Oral Prove Up"; Case No. 2020 D 1234; October 1, 2020.

- 3. DEFAULT PROVE UPS: Movants may move to hold a Respondent in default and to proceed to a default prove up remotely as follows:
 - a. Scheduling through the Clerk's Office. For all cases on Calendars C, D, E, 11, 21, 24, 31-35, 41-45, 51-55, 61, 62, 64, 94, 98, G, W, and X/84, the movant must submit all Required Documents according to the procedure listed in this paragraph to obtain a court date for their remote-means default prove up.
 - i. In order to proceed with a remote-means default prove up on Calendars D, E, 11, 21, 31-35, 41-45, 51-55, 61, 62, 64, 98, and X/84, starting October 1, 2020, for matters to be heard on October 19, 2020 and thereafter, a party must schedule a date for the default means prove up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, the party scheduling the default prove up must submit all Required Documents⁴ via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.
 - ii. In order to proceed with a remote-means default prove up on Calendar C, starting October 12, 2020, for matters to be heard November 1, 2020 and thereafter, a party must schedule a date for the default means prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, the party scheduling the default prove up must submit all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.

- iii. In order to proceed with a remote-means default prove up on Calendars G, W, and 94, starting January 4, 2021, for matters to be heard January 19, 2021 and thereafter, a party must schedule a date for a prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, the party scheduling the default prove up must submit all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.
 - iv. In order to proceed with a remote-means default prove up on Calendars 24, starting November 1, 2021, for matters to be heard November 15, 2021 and thereafter, the parties must schedule a date for a prove-up with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. At least five (5) days in advance of the scheduled prove up, the party scheduling the default prove up must submit all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the prove-up judge.
- b. Scheduling through the Court's Staff. For all cases except those assigned to the Calendars listed in Paragraphs (a), the movant must submit all Required Documents according to the procedure listed in this paragraph to obtain a court date for their remote-means default prove up.
- i. In order to proceed with a remote-means default prove up, the Movant must submit all Required Documents via e-mail, with all counsel of record and self-represented parties included as recipients, to the courtroom e-mail address of the regularly assigned calendar judge.⁵
 - ii. In the email, the Movant shall propose a date for the remote-means default prove up not less than 14 days from the date of submission of her motion and a means to conduct the default prove up remotely (e.g. Skype, Zoom, etc.).
 - iii. Within a reasonable time after receipt, the Court Coordinator or Division Administrator shall notify the Movant whether the request to set the Motion for Default/Prove-Up for a remote hearing has been granted and whether the proposed date, time, and method for the remote-means default prove up has been approved by the Court or what new date, time, and method will be employed instead.
 - iv. The Movant shall then send a copy of the Court's response to the Respondent, noting the date, time, and method of the remote-means default prove up and details on how to join the remote proceeding (i.e. Zoom meeting ID and password) via regular mail to the Respondent's last known address within 48 hours of receipt of approval from the Court but no less than 7 days before the remote proceeding is to occur.
 - v. No remote-means default prove up shall occur without a court reporter. The Court shall arrange for an official court reporter to transcribe the remote proceedings, and the Movant shall be responsible for the costs associated therewith.
 - vi. The Movant shall be responsible for the cost of securing any telephonic conference line or other means of multi-party audio transmission for the remote default prove up and for any costs associated with producing a transcript of the proceeding.
