

Who We Are

Elder Law & Wellness Initiative (ELWI) is a non-profit organization that provides free legal and social service information to people over sixty and their caregivers. We have a dedicated staff of volunteer attorneys to assist you.

Elder Law & Wellness Initiative, NFP is incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois and has been granted exempt status by the IRS under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

What We Do

ELWI can arrange for you to speak to an attorney about many issues, including:

- Financial Exploitation
- Elder Abuse & Neglect
- Orders of Protection
- Guardianship
- Family Law
- Consumer Complaints
- Landlord/Tenant
- Eviction
- Foreclosure
- Collection
- Powers of Attorney
- Wills & Trusts
- Probate

Elder Justice Court Support Program

ELWI attorneys provide free legal information to Cook County residents, aged sixty or over, and their caregivers. The Program is conveniently located in the pedway of the Richard J. Daley Center, by the eastside escalator, next to Starbucks.

After discussing your legal issues with you, our licensed attorneys can offer information about your concerns. In some cases, they can handle your matter on the spot, or they can connect you to someone who can assist you.

About ELWI

ELWI is committed to increasing our senior citizens' access to and understanding of our legal and social support system. ELWI's objective is to work with seniors and their caregivers to nurture and promote the social health and wellness of our seniors, while ensuring that their legal rights are ably represented and protected.

Elder Law & Wellness Initiative, NFP provides legal and social service information to people who are over sixty and their caregivers. ELWI may offer limited legal assistance to qualifying low-income clients in accordance with the definition of pro bono services contained in Illinois Supreme Court Rule 756(f)(2). "Pro bono legal service to persons of limited means refers not only to those persons whose household incomes are below the federal poverty standard, but also to those persons frequently referred to as the 'working poor.'"

ELWI does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, or any other status protected by law or regulation.
